

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

MESSENGERS FROM THE TRENCHES.

Canadian War Records, photo.

STORM-SWEPT PLACES VISITED BY LAST WEEK'S CYCLONE

Home, Quarters, Post Station Flying Fish Reef, (damaged)

Home, Flying Fish Reef, (damaged)

On the Johnston's Quay near Ipswich

John Street, Ipswich

The State Hotel at Brisbane (damaged)

On the Johnston's Quay at Ipswich

Entrance to Cairns Harbour

The wharf at Cairns

Home, Quarters, Post Station

BRANDING CATTLE — BARCLAY DOWNS. NORTH TARRANT.

Setting out the branding point.

Leading a steer up to the branding point.

Branding a steer.

Applying the branding iron.

ALFRED J. JONES, JR. and ALFRED J. JONES, JR., Mayor and Alderman of Seattle, Wash.

MADAME YOKO ONODA, the widow of the late Onoda, who at the age of 14 was a young Japanese woman, who is believed to be the only woman who survived the atomic bombing of Nagasaki.

EUGENE W. CORBILLE

son of the late Wm. W. Corbille, a prominent figure in the city of Seattle, who died in 1908.

A STEAM LOCOMOTIVE AND TRAIN, captured in the photograph, which is a copy of the photograph.

THE COCONUT IN THE BRITISH SOLOMONS SEE SKETCHER

A well advanced coconut plantation

Boys husking coconuts in a plantation

Carrying loads of coconuts from shore to wharf

Water frontage and tiny bay of a coconut plantation

The library of the "Paradise of the Coconut," Makabon, Isle of York Islands. (Garden view of the Guinea, it is considered one of the finest in the Southern Hemisphere)

Mr. August Engelhardt, The Paradise of the Coconut

THE CYCLONE AT CAIRNS.

By the Associated Press

Sea breaking on Cairns' wall.

Motor boat wrecked on the sea wall.

Newmarket Hotel, the wind wreck.

Cummins and Campbell's stores.

Murphy's Boarding House.

The Fire Station.

One of many.

An Esplanade brought down.

AN EXAMPLE OF EARLY QUEENSLAND ARCHITECTURE.

MEETING HOUSE, CLONCURRY WEST.

